

Questions that seek clarification	Questions that probe reasons and evidence	Questions that explore alternate views	Questions that test implications and consequences	Questions about the question/discussion
Can you explain that.....? Explaining What do you mean by.....? Defining Can you give me an example.....? Giving Examples How does that help.....? Enquiring	Why do you think that.....? Forming Arguments How do we know that.....? Assumptions What are your reasons.....? Reasons Do you have evidence.....? Evidence Can you give me an example/counter example....? Counter Examples	Can you put it another way....? Re stating a view Is there another point of view....? Speculation What if someone were to suggest that.....? Alternate View What would someone who disagreed with you say...? Counter Argument What is the difference between those views/ideas...? Distinctions	What follows from what you say.....? Implications Does that fit with what we said earlier....? Consistency What would be the consequence of that....? Consequences Is there a general rule for that.....? Generalising rule How could you test to see if were true....? Testing for truth	Do you have a question about that....? Questioning What kind of question is it...? Analysing How does what was said help us.....? Connecting Where have we got to....? Summarising Who can summarise so far...? Summarising Are we any closer to answering the question...? Drawing Conclusions

Reference: Philosophical Enquiry – R.Fisher